Dear [REDACTED]

Congratulations! This letter serves to formally offer you admission to the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. We officially welcome you into the Industrial Design program in the College of Fine and Applied Arts for the Fall 2018 semester.

Now it's time to uncover the endless opportunities you'll have at Illinois and how you can make your experience here a transformative one. Check out our blog at blog.admissions.illinois.edu to hear the many ways students are making the most of their time here.

Important details about your offer of admission are located on the other side of this letter. Before beginning your Illinois experience, you also need to complete your Admitted Student Checklist, found in myIllini. Make sure to review everything carefully, as this will help you make a smooth transition. If you have any questions, email us at admissions@illinois.edu or call us at 217-333-0302.

In the meantime, take a moment to let it all sink in. You've just been offered admission to one of the most storied universities in the nation, and that's a really big deal. Welcome to the Illinois family!

Sincerely,
